PRESS CONFERENCE:

San Diego City Attorney Michael Aguirre
San Diego Collections Division Manager Michael Vogl

City Attorney Michael Aguirre and Collections Division Manager Michael Vogl will announce the next step in the City's aggressive and uncompromising effort to recover millions of dollars owed to the City from delinquent accounts. The unpaid debts in excess of $56 million come from a variety of sources including delinquent business taxes, damage to City property, rent or fees for use of City property, parking tickets, business water and sewer bills, and non-consumer debts for fire and police services. Partial list of delinquent accounts will be provided to news media.

DATE AND TIME:

Monday, November 21, 10 a.m.

LOCATION:

City Attorney's Office
1200 Third Avenue, Suite 1620
Downtown San Diego
